

The Colloquial Phonetic Alphabet

Have you tried using NATO’s Phoentic Alphabet? Are you unfamiliar with obscure terms like foxtrot and tango? Do you wish you could choose from more than one option per letter? If so, this is the phonetic alphabet for you!

After hours of research and thinking of phone calls, we’ve created a new phonetic alphabet, relying on well-known, colloquial terms like eye and night. Enjoy!

Letter	Pronunciation Options
A	Ay (ay, ay, captain!)
B	Bartholomew Chungus Gingersnap the Third
C	Chimichanga
D	Draconian
E	Eye Eulogy
F	Fallacy
G	Grout
H	Herb (US English pronunciation) Hmmm
I	I
J	José (h-o-zay)
K	Knight
L	Like (L like/as-in like)
M	Mnemonic
N	Night
O	Oedipus
P	Pneumonia
Q	Quintessential
R	Right
S	Sciatica
T	Tea Tnetennba
U	Umm
V	Vacay (I can’t wait for my vacay)
W	Why
X	Xing (be sure to stop at the railroad xing!)
Y	You
Z	Za (can I get a slice of cheese ‘za?)